GARDEN GROVE KIWANIS RAMBLINGS, PUBLISHED WEEKLY

JULY 21, 2005

Happy/Sads Highlight the Evening

Thoughts and Prayers for Janet Steimert and Jay Mastroianni foremost

Janet Steinert, the daughter of Jack and Marge Wallin, passed away last Sunday, ending her ordeal with ALS. A viewing will be held on Thursday, July 28th from 4-8pm at Hilgenfeld Mortuary, 120 East Broadway in Anaheim (535-4105). The funeral service will be Friday, July 29th at 10am at the Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, 1421 West Ball Road in Anaheim (774-0993). Jack suggested donations to Kiwanisland instead of flowers. Our deepest sympathies to her family.

Jay Mastroianni back home

Jay Mastroianni is walking now and intends to attend the August 4th meeting. It will be great to see him tease Bob Main again. Rick Glasby and his wife Cathy were involved in a motor accident while on their Harley. Rick was still sore—and his body ached, too—but Cathy took the worst of it and is still recovering.

Announcements

At last Monday's DCM several important items were discussed.

There will be a CHOC/Kiwanis meeting Sept. 12th to discuss what our service clubs can do for them in terms of fundraising and coordinating services.

The District Convention will be August 18-20th in Fresno. Anyone who hasn't yet planned a summer vacation for his wife might be able to avoid sleeping on the couch by taking her to Fresno. Then again, taking her to Fresno in August might just allow you to spent your nights in the backyard, too.

On July 30th, various Key Clubs will meet to perform a Beach Clean-up. They need chaperones. Who knows what trouble hundreds of unsupervised teenagers at the beach could get into? Teenagers frolicking on the beach...I think it could be better than the latest reality show. Call Randy Golden if you'd like to watch, 847-5574 or Bcracker@aol.com.

Members Glasby, Schlensker and Leeb creating more work for Wallin while repairing bridge.

Happy / Sads

Petrosine happy $1 that he was not fined $40 for his picture in the paper without a mention of Kiwanis. Granted, he volunteered $20 even though the paper was from 1974. And I truly believe that the statute of limitations on club fines is less than 30 years. Who would have believed that Tom looked even better then than he does now?

Kelly for Jack and Marge.

Hodges for Janet and his retirement.

Main $5 for Janet and that Jay M. will be at the club on Singer's birthday. While we were all shocked that he had remembered Sheldon's birthday, Sheldon pointed out that he and Bob share that birthday.

Broadwater for Jack and Marge.

Schlensker $10 for Janet, Jack and Marge. Swanstrom dollar for Jay, dollar for Jack, dollar for Glasby and wife surviving, and dollar for good luck in upcoming trip to Vegas.

Kim $10 for Jack's daughter and $10 for birthday pair Singer and Main.

Glasby $5 for Jack and Marge and $10 that he got hit on motorcycle.

Newkirk $5 for Janet, and happy for vacation to Bass Lake.

Wallin for all the support from the club.

Leeb to be back from three weeks vacation in WI with daughters and wife.

McIlvain $5 for Janet and our various other concerns.

Carter $5 for Janet.

Upcoming speakers

Dr. Jack Revell will be speaking next week, July 28th, on the proper care and maintenance of nuclear weapons.

Tom Elliott, Aug 4th, will review his year of service on the OC Grand Jury. I think he's allowed to spill his guts now.

Don Alexander, Aug 11th, the sports columnist for GG Journal.

Lauren Howard, Aug 18th, our sponsored contestant for the Miss GG Scholarship Pageant.

On the dock: Tom Umberg—state assemblyman
