Pancake Breakfast not too bad either.

Corn Booth Does Well

Craig Howard was pleased with the efforts that went into the Corn Booth experience. The club did well, about the same as last year, Leeb's Pancakes Breakfast was worth the effort, and the money raised for the loving care of the park and the kids who use it, looks like it will go a long way. In addition I learned an amazing bit of information which I would have never known had I not volunteered for the booth. I breathlessly pass this on to those unfortunate members who were unable to serve booth time. There is a large demand for Mayonnaise on corn! How can that be? What will be next? Tuna sandwiches with mustard? Pastrami Tacos?? Pork stuffed with Corned Beef? The list could go on and on, I got so upset, I had my Ice Cream on an Onion Roll and took a nap.

Just think, all that money for the kids, and it all begins with dirt.

Health Report

The report on Tom Elliott sounds good. He is recuperating from knee replacement surgery, and as soon as he is strong enough, he will return to the hospital and have the other one done. He should be recuperating at home by the time you read this, so give him a call and tell him you care. I understand his first attempt to run the Los Angeles Marathon will be delayed till next year. It was good to see Shelly back with us, and looking none the worse for wear and tear, Jay was his old ornery self again, which is always a good sign, Bob Main has been back for a while, but it's always good to see him with us, and President Nielsen who missed last week, returned to President duty as soon as he heard that Will did such a good job that he could pose a threat to Don's position.

Happy 86 for R.C. Gall

The highlight of the evening occurred when R.C. was saluted in song for celebrating his 86th Birthday. While only the sound of the voices actually brought tears to our eyes, R.C. looks the same as he has for the last decade, and the good wishes were from the heart when it came to honoring this great member of the club. Happy Birthday from all of us. You're a special guy!

Happy/Sad Dollars

With no program, few announcements, and a small crowd feeding mainly on the return of Shelly and Jay, in the happy/sad category the problem becomes filling the page with enough information to keep everyone awake while reading this. I have a motto however, and that is, "when in doubt make it up" and only I know for sure what is real or not, so here goes:

- Peter C. Happy about the Corn Booth
- R.C. Five for our Birthday tribute.
- Ed H. Sad for Rick Gutierrez's mom passing. Missed two weeks visiting North Carolina, and caught a picture while standing in front of a plastic fish.
- Tony L. Ten happy ones for R.C. and sad for Elliott's knee replacement
- Tom P. Happy to be alive. A situation shared by most of us.
- Efrain D. Happy for R.C and Shelly
- Bob M. R.C. Kelly, and Craig's Corn Booth
- Jerry K. Shelly and Jay
- Don S. Don S. R.C B-day Shelly, Jay, Craig, and Jack. (I think we are getting out of hand here.)
- Walt D. Shelly and Jay
- Jack W. Shelly, Tom E., and Jay
- Brent H. Shelly and Jay
- Craig H. R.C. , Shelly and corn booth
- Gary S. Craig, Shelly, and Jay
- Don N. Same as everybody else.
- Shelly S. Happy to be back and R.C.
- Rick G. Off on a motorcycle trip to Colorado
- Jerry M. Jay and Shelly
- Jay M. 20 for R.C. Honorable Mention for me.

Not overly creative episode, but the thoughts are always appreciated.

Coming Soon

You never know unless you show up.

Thought For The Week

I have finally come to grips with the fact that "Happy Hour" now, is taking a nap!
