GARDEN GROVE KIWANIS RAMBLINGS, PUBLISHED WEEKLY

MARCH 5, 2009

Zach Barrett, native GGer, aids Haitians

Some of our money helps provide seeds for 5 acres of vegetables

Those in attendance last Thursday were treated to a video presentation of the good work being done by Zach Barrett and his co-worker Kent from Calvary Chapel on Knott Ave. They travel to Haiti about twice a year to provide fresh-water wells, fish hatcheries and seeds for vegetable farms. In the fall he will be travelling to Appalachia to minister to the down-trodden.

The presentation showed many hundreds of children living in an orphanage run by a church, happy and well-fed. Then they traveled out a two-lane dirt road to a small village where the conditions were utterly deplorable. They brought rice and vegetables and are planning a return trip next year.

Upcoming Events

March 12th-Corn beef and cabbage for dinner. Speaker for the program: owner of a first production run T-Bird, a Garden Grove resident whose name escaped the grasp of several of our members.

March 19th-Spouse Night. Sign up with Tom Petrosine if you did not sign the list that went around at the meeting. The speaker will be Maggie Wells, GG Costco head honcho.

April 26th-Kiwanisland Pancake breakfast. Placemat sales are in progress. Mr. Hodges recommends that everyone suggest a friend or business colleague buy one the hugely lucrative ad placements. Send your friends card to Ed, he'll send out a bill.

May 22nd-25th- Corn Booth chair Howard confirms the paperwork is being completed for another annual installment of schucking corn, water and pickles.
